Wonder Woman Dr. Thea Saliba

Dr. Thea Saliba is a busy young lady who perfectly reflects today's lifestyle.

Thea obtained her Doctor of Laws Degree from the University of Malta last year and is now a warranted full-time lawyer. Practising law has always been her dream career which has been achieved through persistence, determination and hard work.

Apart from her professional career, Thea is also a singer, a pianist and a TV host. She has been singing, dancing, performing and playing the piano from a very young age and has performed in various European Countries including Italy, Sicily, London, Belgium, Germany and Holland. Thea now teaches piano, theory of music and singing classes at Thea's Music Room, her studio in San Pawl tat-Targa.

Thea is also very passionate about fashion. Fashion and the image she portrays has always been a big part of her life through her numerous TV and stage appearances and performances. Being so passionate about fashion and the image a woman needs to portray, has lead her to communicate fashion lifestyle to women during her TV programme 'ElleTV'. This informative programme targets every woman of every age who use fashion and their image to express themselves daily.

Finally, although Thea has a very busy lifestyle, she still finds time for what is important in life, that is, her family, her boyfriend and her close friends.
